Day on the Hill

Tuesday, October 13th, 2009

Washington, D. C.

This event is open to all NWC members. Participants will have a full day to visit with Members of Congress in our nation's capital. The day will start off with a breakfast, speakers during the morning session, a luncheon, and then visits to Members' offices. In the evening there will be a private dinner with a special guest speaker at Morton's Steakhouse on Connecticut Avenue in Washington, D.C.

There will be a special block of rooms held for NWC members on October 12th and 13th at the St. Regis Hotel as well as the Hyatt Regency Capitol Hill in Washington, D.C.

To hold your space, please contact Lisa Spies at 202-744-7373 or Lisa@theLSgroup.com

The National Women's Committee of the RJC was formed to give Republican Jewish women a strong voice to express their unique viewpoint on issues and exciting ways to make a difference in their communities. The goal of NWC is to foster and enhance ties between American Jewish women and Republican decision makers. We believe that women play an integral role in the development of public policies and are essential in mobilizing others to participate in the political process. The NWC is also committed to encouraging women to become more involved with the Republican Jewish Coalition. Additionally, it is the intent of the NWC to be a vehicle through which women can make their voices heard within the Republican Party, whether it be through elected office, fundraising, or grassroots activism.
